Successful schools require the efforts of more than just teachers, principals and students. Successful schools also rely on parents and communities to help them be the best they can be.

Lloydminster Catholic Schools need you to be part of our School Community Councils!

What is a School Community Council?

School Community Councils are school-level groups that will provide input into school improvement. School Community Councils provide you with a special opportunity to make a real difference in your child's school.

Who are School Community Council members?

- All parents and community members are welcome to attend School Community Council Meetings. Dedicated volunteers to assist in the work of SCC Executive and school Administration goals directions
- Principals, teachers, students, parents and community members interested in working with others
