Dear Mr. Wotherspoon:

I write to you today as a strong supporter of Catholic education in Saskatchewan, specifically regarding Justice Donald Layh's recent ruling against Christ the Teacher Roman Catholic Separate School Division and the Government of Saskatchewan stating that public funds cannot be used to fund the education of Saskatchewan, non-Catholic students at Catholic schools.

As a parent, I support Catholic education and believe in the right to choose my child's/children educational path, regardless of religious background. I am pleased with the recent statements made by both Premier Brad Wall and Minister Don Morgan, that together we must stand up for Catholic education in Saskatchewan and that the ruling "cannot stand."

I ask that you use whatever legal means necessary (such as an appeal or the notwithstanding clause of the charter) to stand behind your statements. This decision must be reversed to ensure that our rights are not infringed upon, so that all current and future parents have the educational choice afforded them in the constitution.

Insert personal story or claim if you wish.

Thank you for your time, and thank you for the continued protection of religious and educational freedom for the citizens of Saskatchewan.

Sincerely,

Your Name
