

Elementary French Immersion Teachers Lloydminster Catholic School Division

We are seeking teachers who demonstrate commitment to “Catholic Education” and passion for excellence in extra-curricular activities.

École St. Thomas is a single track K-7 French Immersion School serving the needs of all Immersion students in Lloydminster area. Fully bilingual teachers, committed to Catholic Education, who strive for academic excellence, are encouraged to apply for these positions. Lloydminster Catholic School Division is a progressive, growing Saskatchewan School Division in the unique position of offering prospective teachers access to either the Saskatchewan or Alberta pension plans, depending upon their previous experience. Specialized training and/or experience in French Immersion methodology is required.

Applications and Other Documents:

Please submit resumes to the undersigned including references, university transcripts and a RCMP/Vulnerable Sector check. Interviews will be conducted as soon as a suitable field of candidates has been received. For more information, please contact Mme Lisa Marie Kreese, Principal at (780) 875-5366.
